THE Tan Yard at the Yellow Springs, a Green County. This Yard has been in operation about 5 years, and is now in first-rate order. It contains 12 layaway vata, 5 handles, 4 large leadines, 2 handles and 1 yook; all under cover except the layaways. The bark mill is situated above the leaches, and is so arranged that the ground bark may fall into any of the leaches without the labor of carrying. The 5 handles and 12 layaways are troughed and empty into a junk, from which it is pumped by horse-power. The ground plat is 100 leet by 109, and has upon it a good frame dwelling, containing 3 frooms. There is no other yard in operation at the place.
